Certified Community Builder: Nonprofit Leadership - Program Cost: $150

The Certified Community Builder: Nonprofit Track contains nine educational modules that cover many aspects of nonprofit leadership. You will interact with professionals in the areas of nonprofit and board governance, communication, public relations, strategic planning, finance, and fundraising. Upon completion of the Certified Community Builder development series, you will be prepared to serve on organization boards, to lead and support small organizations, and to be a part of strengthening your community.

Your fee also includes an additional class on Grantwriting, which will be held in March 2011, after the Community Builder series.

Volunteering and Service

Please list any community, governmental, nonprofit, political, religious, social, business, parenting, neighborhood and professional activities in which you have participated (attach additional sheets if necessary.)

About how many hours per month do you spend on volunteer or other community work? _____

If you have not been involved with community volunteer activities in the past, please explain why.

What motivated you to apply for Community Builders, and what do you bring to the group?

What do you hope to gain from your participation in this Community Builders series?

What do you think are two major challenges facing Greene County?

Personal Commitment

Participation in the Community Builders of Greene County leadership development series will require you to attend nine evening sessions over a five month period, participate in a group project and attend a board meeting. All participants are expected to contribute during all sessions. As a graduate of the program, you may be asked to serve your community as a board member, dedicated volunteer, or community leader.

I understand the purpose and requirements of Community Builders of Greene County, and will devote the time and energy necessary to complete the program. I will then work to strengthen my community in a manner appropriate for my interests and skills.
