The Max Cunningham Scholarship Fund is established at the Community Foundation of Greene by West Greene School District as a non-endowed scholarship. The scholarship is made possible by contributions from family and friends of Max Cunningham and various fundraisers to benefit the scholarship fund.

Max Cunningham, of Aleppo, Pennsylvania was a student at West Greene Middle School when he passed away on May 24, 2015, at age 13 years following a year-long illness. The son of Bonnie Sue Jordan of Aleppo and Robert Cunningham of Cameron, W.Va., Max loved going to school where he was a member of the Quiz Bowl Team and the Reading Club. He also enjoyed playing Xbox games, reading and spending time with his brother, Dallas, his family and his dog, Duncan.

The Max Cunningham Scholarship is in memory of Max and all that he contributed to his school, friends and family during his short life. One Scholarship of $10,000 will be awarded to one member of the West Greene High School Class of 2020. The scholarship will be awarded for up to four-years of post-secondary education (recipient must provide proof of satisfactory completion of each academic year). The scholarship award may be used for tuition, books, fees and supplies.
